Re: Anwar, et al. v. Fairfield Greenwich Limited, et al., 09-cv-118 (VM)

Dear Judge Marrero:

I write to memorialize my conversation from earlier today with your law clerk, Jennifer Sapp, regarding my March 29, 2011 letter to the Court. As explained in the letter, I wrote pursuant to Rule 1.12 of the New York Rules of Professional Conduct to notify the Court and the parties that Ropes & Gray LLP ("R&G") had been retained to represent Robert Del Monaco and Edward Ludwig in connection with the above-captioned matter (the "Matter"). Messrs. Del Monaco and Ludwig are current or former employees of GlobeOp Financial Services LLC, a defendant in the Matter. Ms. Sapp asked that I write the Court to provide this additional information.

As set forth in the March 29 letter, Kara Maguire, who recently served as a judicial clerk for Your Honor and who worked on the Matter during her clerkship, joined R&G in November, 2010 as an associate and has been and will be screened from any participation in the Matter. Further, Ms. Maguire will not be apportioned any part of the fee the firm may earn from its representation of parties in the Matter. We may be retained in the future to represent other former GlobeOp employees in connection with the Matter and in any such instances, Ms. Maguire will be similarly screened from the Matter.

If you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate contact me.

Sincerely,

Zachary S. Brez
